- ✓ The Counselling Board reserves its right to alter and modify time and conditions laid down in the notification, information booklet for conducting the various stages up to the admission, duly intimating details thereof on the website, as warranted by any unforeseen circumstances arising during the course of this process, or as deemed necessary by the Counselling Board at any stage.

ALLOTMENT OF SEATS THROUGH COUNSELLING PROCESS

Selection of Students

The Ist, IInd & Mop up counselling process will be done ONLINE through web site www.rajugpgayushcounselling.in/

- Allotment of seats through counselling process of all successful and registered candidates through NEET-2020 result shall be conducted for all the candidates who appeared in NEET- 2020, strictly in accordance with the merit list prepared on the basis of All India Merit in NEET-2020.
- Candidates once allotted seat and college in 1st Round, must deposit their full fee for the session 2020-21 in their respective reporting centers/college decided by counselling board, Jodhpur within stipulated period of time. Only then they will be eligible for up gradation in 2nd round if they desire so to change college/course. Seats allotted to the candidates up to the 2nd round will be considered as final and there will be no chance for them to participate for further round of counselling.
- A candidate allotted a seat in second round of counseling and does not report/ join the allotted seat, his/her counselling fee will be forfeited. Such candidate shall not be eligible to participate in subsequent round.

- The counselling fee will be forfeited in case the candidate gives wrong information at the time of application on the basis of which a seat may be allotted and later cancelled by the Admission Authorities at the time of reporting.
- No candidate will be allowed to resign from the State Quota seats after allotment in round 2.
- Those who applied but not allotted a seat in first round as well as second round will be considered for mop-up round of counselling (without fresh application form i.e. need not fill the application form again).
- All the candidates are further informed that as per Hon'ble supreme Court directions in Writ Petition No. 267/2017 DAR-US-SLAM Education Trust & Ors Vs MCI & Ors, candidate who has joined in allotted colleges through admission in All India Quota seats (15%) / All Deemed University after Round 2 of NEET UG AIQ seats, will not be allowed to participate in Round 2 of State Counselling.
- A candidate without Original certificates / documents shall not be allowed to take admission at the allotted reporting centers/college under any circumstances. A candidate who has already been admitted in UG course and has deposited his / her certificates in any college/ institute / university and comes for counselling (allotment process) with a certificate stating that "his/her original certificates are deposited with the another reporting centers/college / institute / university, will also be allowed to take admission at the allotted college subject to production of ORIGINAL certificate issued by concerned Counselling Board / Head of the institution to this Counselling Board during his/her counselling, stating that the original documents of the candidate are deposited with them.
- The colleges shall be provided the list of provisionally allotted candidates. They shall verify the credentials of reporting candidates as per the list.
- The admission shall be treated as provisional subject to the final decision of any pending case(s) in any court of law, if applicable to these admissions. Further, the provisional status of admission shall stand cleared only after enrolment by the concerned University.
- If any new AYUSH college is permitted to join counselling during the ongoing counselling process for next round, preference will be given to the merit order of all registered candidates.
- Candidates are advised to visit counselling board website and daily news papers time to time for information of dates and other information's for conducting various rounds of counselling.
- After mop-up round, once the AACCC NEET merit list is exhausted and vacant seats thereof are transferred to Counselling Board Rajasthan, the admissions on residual vacant seats will be done on filling application form with NEET UG/PG AYUSH Counselling Board Rajasthan in Stray Vacancy Round if needed.

REPORTING TO COLLEGE AFTER COUNSELLING/JOINING TIME

- Each candidate shall be given the time as mentioned in the allotment letter, issued on line, to join the allotted college and course. There is no provision of extension for joining date under any circumstances. The allotment made will be firm and final. Change of college/course from one place to another is not permitted. Therefore, request for the same would not be entertained by the Counselling Board after the allotment, except the candidate can opt for 2nd round of counselling for change of college/course as per allotment.
- While reporting for admission, please carry all the relevant certificates/documents in original and also submit an undertaking (Performa-9 on Non Judicial Stamp of Rs 50) that the submitted documents are in original.
- The fact that a candidate has appeared for allotment shall not entitle him/her for allotment reallocation as the same will be subject to availability of seat and acceptance of the available seats at the rank of the candidate by him/her.
- The selected candidates will be required to undergo medical examination at the allotted institution on the notified date(s).
- Provided that if any candidate is not able to report for Medical Examination at the Institution on the notified date on medical grounds or due to some other circumstances beyond his/her control and his/her parent/guardian comes in person on his/her behalf for verification of the original certificates to the college he/she will be considered for provisional admission. His / Her formal admission will be confirmed only when he/she is found medically fit and fulfills other requirements as per the dates notified.

- Candidates who fail to attend medical examination on the notified date are liable to forfeit the claim for admission.
- Candidates who have been admitted must join their classes on the date to be notified.
- The selection for this admission will be cancelled if the selected candidates do not report to the allotted college and deposit fees upto the stipulated date or whose particulars are not found correct or who are found medically unfit.
- The selected candidates must also carry all requisite certificates and documents in original and also submit an undertaking that the submitted documents are in original along with self-attested copies of the same, at the time of reporting in Round 1, at the time of counseling of Round 2 and mop-up round and shall deposit the applicable fees of the allotted college and complete other formalities within stipulated time, failing which their admission shall stand cancelled.
- The candidates must present the accepted resignation/relieving letter from the institution he/ she is pursuing studies at present, at the time of reporting. Failure to do so will result in disqualification for admission.
- The non-viewing of the websites about allotment information by the candidate shall not be accepted as a ground for non-reporting on the scheduled time and date. The candidate's allotment will stand automatically cancelled if he/she does not report IN PERSON to the allotted reporting centers. As per the notified schedule.
- A candidate shall have to deposit the full fee of the college for the session 2020-21, where he/she is admitted within the notified time after the counselling. Only after depositing this fee, the college shall confirm the admission.

IMPORTANT

- The candidates who do not join the allotted college will be treated as fresh candidate in the subsequent round of counselling.
- While reporting for admission, please carry all the relevant certificates/documents.
- Candidates who have been admitted must join their classes on the date notified by concerned universities after admission.
- Admission will be cancelled if the selected candidates do not report to the allotted college and Deposit fees with in stipulated period.

IMPERSONATION

1. If at any stage, it is found that any candidate has indulged in any case of impersonation i.e. not matching the photograph/signature/documents of the candidate etc. He/She will be handed over to the Police and the cases will be dealt as per the Indian Penal Code in this matter and if required, the cases will be handed over to Police for further investigation. Such candidates will be debarred permanently from taking BAMS/BUMS/BHMS/BNYS Admissions in Future.
2. The apex court drew guidelines for the management of all educational institutions to follow. Among them:

Educational institutions should take anti-ragging measures right from the time of advertisement for admissions. The prospectus, the form for admission and/or any other literature issued to aspirants for admission must clearly mention that ragging is banned in the institution and anyone indulging in it is likely to be punished appropriately which may include expulsion from the institution, suspension from the institution or classes for a limited period or fine with a public apology.

The punishment may also take the shape of: (i) withholding scholarships or other benefits (ii) debarring from representation in events (iii) withholding results (iv) suspension or expulsion from hostel or mess. If there be any legislation governing ragging or any provisions in statute/ordinance, it should be brought to the notice of the students/parents seeking admissions. A printed leaflet detailing when and to whom a victim may turn for information, help and guidance for various purposes, keeping in view the needs of new entrants, along with their addresses and telephone numbers should be given to fresher at the time of admissions so that they need not to look to seniors for help in such matters.

3. If, for reasons to be recorded in writing, the Counselling Board suspects that a particular candidate has obtained a certificate by misrepresenting facts, the matter will be referred to the concerned D.M. On receipt of the enquiry report, the Counselling Board shall take the final decision regarding the admission of the Candidate.

Annexure-1

- (A) Five per cent. of the annual sanctioned intake capacity in Government or Government-aided Institutions shall be filled up by candidates with benchmark disabilities in accordance with the provisions of the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016, based on the merit list of 'National Eligibility Entrance Test'.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this clause, the "Specified Disability" contained in the Schedule to the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016(49 of 2016) is specified in Appendix 'A' and the eligibility of candidates to pursue a course in Indian systems of medicine with specified disability shall be in accordance with the guidelines specified in Appendix 'B', and if the seats reserved for the persons with disabilities in a particular category remain unfilled on account of unavailability of candidates, the seats shall be included in the annual sanctioned seats for the respective category."

Appendix "A"

SCHEDULE relating to "SPECIFIED DISABILITY" referred to in clause (zc) of section 2 of the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016(49 of 2016), provides as under:-

1. Physical disability. —

A. Locomotor disability (a person's inability to execute distinctive activities associated with movement of self and objects resulting from affliction of musculoskeletal or nervous system or both), including—

(a) "leprosy cured person" means a person who has been cured of leprosy but is suffering from—

(i) loss of sensation in hands or feet as well as loss of sensation and paresis in the eye and eye-lid but with no manifest deformity;

(ii) manifest deformity and paresis but having sufficient mobility in their hands and feet to enable them to engage in normal economic activity;

(iii) extreme physical deformity as well as advanced age which prevents him/her from undertaking any gainful occupation, and the expression "leprosy cured" shall construed accordingly;

(b) "cerebral palsy" means a Group of non-progressive neurological condition affecting body movements and muscle coordination, caused by damage to one or more specific areas of the brain, usually occurring before, during or shortly after birth;

(c) "dwarfism" means a medical or genetic condition resulting in an adult height of 4feet 10 inches (147 centimeters) or less;

(d) "muscular dystrophy" means a group of hereditary genetic muscle disease that weakens the muscles that move the human body and persons with multiple dystrophy have incorrect and missing information in their genes, which prevents them from making the proteins they need for healthy muscles. It is characterized by progressive skeletal muscle weakness, defects in muscle proteins, and the death of muscle cells and tissue; (e) "acid attack victims" means a person disfigured due to violent assaults by throwing of acid or similar corrosive substance.

B. Visual impairment—

(a) "blindness" means a condition where a person has any of the following conditions, after best correction—

(i) total absence of sight; or

(ii) visual acuity less than 3/60 or less than 10/200 (Snellen) in the better eye with best possible correction; or

(iii) limitation of the field of vision subtending an angle of less than 10 degree.

(b) "low-vision" means a condition where a person has any of the following conditions, namely:—

(i) visual acuity not exceeding 6/18 or less than 20/60 upto 3/60 or upto 10/200(Snellen) in the better eye with best possible corrections; or

(ii) limitation of the field of vision subtending an angle of less than 40 degree up to 10 degree.

C. Hearing impairment -

(a) "deaf" means persons having 70 DB hearing loss in speech frequencies in both ears;

(b) "hard of hearing" means person having 60 DB to 70 DB hearing loss in speech frequencies in both ears;

D. "speech and language disability" means a permanent disability arising out of conditions such as laryngectomy or aphasia affecting one or more components of speech and language due to organic or neurological causes.

2. Intellectual disability, a condition characterized by significant limitation both in intellectual functioning (reasoning, learning, problem solving) and in adaptive behavior which covers a range of every day, social and practical skills, including—

(a) "specific learning disabilities" means a heterogeneous group of conditions wherein there is a deficit in processing language, spoken or written, that may manifest itself as a difficulty to comprehend, speak, read, write, spell, or to do mathematical calculations and includes such conditions as perceptual disabilities, dyslexia, dysgraphia, dyscalculia, dyspraxia and developmental aphasia;

(b) "autism spectrum disorder" means a neuro-developmental condition typically appearing in the first three years of life that significantly affects a person's ability to communicate, understand relationships and relate to others, and is frequently associated with unusual or stereotypical rituals or behaviours.

3. Mental behaviour,— "mental illness" means a substantial disorder of thinking, mood, perception, orientation or memory that grossly impairs judgment, behaviour, capacity to recognize reality or ability to meet the ordinary demands of life, but does not include retardation which is a condition of arrested or incomplete development of mind of a person, specially characterized by sub-normality of intelligence.

4. Disability caused due to—

(a) chronic neurological conditions, such as—

(i) "multiple sclerosis" means an inflammatory, nervous system disease in which the myelin sheaths around the axons of nerve cells of the brain and spinal cord are damaged, leading to demyelination and affecting the ability of nerve cells in the brain and spinal cord to communicate with each other;

(ii) "parkinson's disease" means a progressive disease of the nervous system marked by tremor, muscular rigidity, and slow, imprecise movement, chiefly affecting middle-aged and elderly people associated with degeneration of the basal ganglia of the brain and a deficiency of the neurotransmitter dopamine.

(b) Blood disorder—

(i) "haemophilia" means an inheritable disease, usually affecting only male but transmitted by women to their male children, characterized by loss or impairment of the normal clotting ability of blood so that a minor wound may result in fatal bleeding;

(ii) "thalassemia" means a group of inherited disorders characterized by reduced or absent amounts of haemoglobin.

(iii) "sickle cell disease" means a hemolytic disorder characterized by chronic anemia, painful events, and various complications due to associated tissue and organ damage; "hemolytic" refers to the destruction of the cell membrane of red blood cells resulting in the release of hemoglobin.

5. Multiple Disabilities (more than one of the above specified disabilities) including deaf blindness which means a condition in which a person may have combination of hearing and visual impairments causing severe communication, developmental, and educational problems.
